Happy Halloween!

President's Message

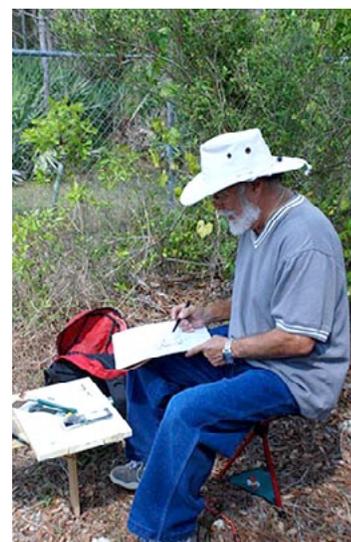

As the cool weather seeps into South Florida, so does our urge to run outside and enjoy the beautiful tropical colors around us. Take advantage of it now. It's a great time to find your next 'series, take reference photos, or do some Plein Air sketching/painting.

MWS is planning Paint Outs to facilitate all of these activities and help boost your creative juices. It is the best way to experience nature, create a 'mini' masterpiece and hang with fellow artists.

You'll be amazed at what you will see when hidden in the jungle, quietly observing your subject. If you've never done Plein Air painting or haven't made time for it, I suggest taking a walk on the wild side, as they say, you may be surprised at how much you enjoy it.

We welcome suggestions for paint out locations, email them to info@miamiwatercolor.org.

Painting, a stroke of genius,
Diane Lary, MWS President

Florida Watercolor Society Annual Show

Congratulations to MWS members who were accepted in to the FWS annual show:

- Cathy Allsman
- Karen Braverman
- Dottie Greene
- Jorge Leon
- Marilyn Liedman
- Thomas Rebek

Student/Teacher Outreach Program

The first half of the two-part Student/Teacher Outreach Program took place at Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden all day September 12, 2015. Sincere appreciation goes to Dottie Greene, Jenny Lowhar, Karon Gorham, Beth Werner, Linda Van Leer, Jedda Wong, Bettyann Pober, treasurer Ricky Sills and president Diane Lary for helping make the 17th Annual Teachers Workshop a success. In addition, the MWS is grateful to Fairchild's Education Department, Joe Miller at Cheap Joe's and Offerdahl's for their donations.

Twenty-one public school art teachers attended. MWS members demonstrated techniques for skillfully using watercolor and offered grade level watercolor projects for teachers to use in their classrooms. The art educators earned professional development points toward state re-certification for participating in the workshop.

The second half of the community outreach will be the 30th annual "Impressions in Watercolor" student show Thursday, November 19, at the Kendall JCC from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m. Would you please consider chairing the hospitality committee that evening, working as a host or hostess, donating baked goods or finger foods, or coming to see the K-12 grade students' watercolors? You will have an opportunity to volunteer at both the October and November MWS general meetings. Whatever role you choose, your support is needed and welcome.

The Student/Teacher Outreach Program has thrived for 30 years because of the dedication of Dottie Greene to keep watercolor in the classrooms of Miami-Dade County schools. Due to her retirement, it will take many of us to fill her shoes.

– Donna Underwood and Jenny Lowhar

Thank You Teacher's Workshop Team

What a wonderful Teacher's Workshop the Team of MWS volunteers hosted at Fairchild Tropical Botanical Garden on Saturday Sept 12th. Thank you to Donna Underwood, Dottie Greene, Karon Gorham, Jenny Lowhar, Beth Werner, Jedda Wong, Bettyann Pober and Linda Van Leer. Donna, Dottie, Karon and Jenny demonstrated techniques while the students (actually teachers) painted along with them. At the end of the day the students evaluated the workshop with amazing comments.

Here are few in particular, all gave top ratings and wanted to stay and paint longer.

- Everything was absolutely amazing!
- Best Part
 - The variety of different techniques – (lots of people said this)
 - Hands on trying the different techniques
- I loved the workshop and thank you all for your dedication!

They really loved the workshop and the demonstrators. Congratulations Donna, Dottie, Karon, Jenny and the whole Workshop Team. Great Job!

– Diane Lary

Dottie Greene

Lead by Donna Underwood with Jenny Lowhar, Karon Gorham and Dottie Greene demonstrating. Bettyann Pober and Linda Van Leer assisted. Twenty teachers from Miami-Dade County Public Schools attended the workshop.

Fall Workshop

Capturing the Personality of People and Pets in Watercolor

by Suzanna Winton

October 12-15, 2015

at Suniland Park

This workshop is designed to help the beginner to the advanced student, learn how to capture the personality of people and pets in watercolor.

The first day of the workshop will consist of learning what colors to use and how to layer them in a chart to achieve glowing skin tones. You will learn how each layer depends on the next to create luminous colors.

We will then focus on the main features of the face (eyes, nose, mouth), in a variety of shapes and colors. By painting the main features, this prepares you to paint the full subject later in the class.

The Instructor will also paint a pet as you follow along painting the same subject or you may bring the pet subject of your choice. We will cover all the many similarities there are in painting pets and people using a limited palette.

Suzanna Winton

For more than 22 years Suzanna Winton has captured the essence of the human soul through her watercolor portraits. She has been teaching for 15 years and often jury's Art Exhibitions. She is the recipient of over 40 awards and has been featured in many national and international publications. These publications include Splash 6, The Artist's Magazine, American Artist, Watercolor Magic, Watercolor Basics, Watercolor Artist's and Pratique De Arts (A French Watercolor Magazine). The staff of The Artist's Magazine lists her as "An artist on the rise and one of 20 artists who we believe are destined to be master painters of the future" (01/04). Suzanna is a signature member of the National Watercolor Society, Florida Watercolor Society, Southern Watercolor Society, and Watercolor West. Her work is in many Corporate and private collections.

MWS Painting Class Report

Linda VanLeer

Bettyann Pober and Linda VanLeer facilitated a workshop that focused on collage on Sunday, September 20. Several of the attendees were beginning watercolorists and chose to focus on their watercolor technique. Also in the group was one of our first "Student" members. We have only reproduced the collage work, as that was the focus of the workshop....but we are equally as proud of those that worked solely in watercolor." Apologies if your work is not reproduced as our space is limited. Everyone did a fabulous job!

Terry Mulrooney Shows & talks about building her business

As an artist, I have spent endless hours in planning, researching and finding ways to build my business...I am starting to see some success. I still have SO much to learn, and experience.

The first piece of advice to tell anyone that wants to build a business career. PLAN IT...decide which direction you want to go. Is it selling originals or prints, licensing, commissions, teaching? All of these are viable. Then make a plan with goals, objective and timelines. Here is the hard part... FOLLOW IT! Remember that the plan needs to be organic and changeable as opportunities and situations change.

Please take a look at the schedule of events for my shows. I would love to see you there!

Our Mission...

The Miami Watercolor Society, Inc. is a non-profit organization whose membership consists of a broad spectrum of water media painters ranging from professionals, teachers and those who simply paint for the joy of it, as well as patrons of the arts. This culturally diverse Society informs and educates members and others by providing exhibitions, community education, students' exhibitions, senior citizens' activities, demonstrations, and publications.

Providing over 30 years of artistic inspiration for water media artists!

This newsletter is made possible with the support of the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners.

September 2015 MWS Meeting Notes

In September the MWS had a "welcome back" general meeting after a summer break. We reported on old and new business, got to chat with friends and new members and watched a video of Suzanna Winton, our Fall workshop instructor, demonstrate a portrait painting.
