Happy Valentine's Day!

President's Message

February, the time when it's beautiful, sunny and cool in South Florida...well usually!

What is COOL, in January the Miami-Dade County School Board presented MWS with a Proclamation commending our society for the remarkable work we have done for the past 30 years for the Miami-Dade Public Schools through the Annual Teachers Workshop and Student Exhibition

"Impressions in Watercolor". The Miami Watercolor Society volunteers, originated by Dottie Greene and now headed by Donna Underwood, have done amazing work to bring watercolor painting into the Public Schools. What was once thought of as only for the K-6 curriculum is now sought after and awarded annually for students ranging from K-12th Grade. This is exemplified by the growth in the number of teachers signing up for the workshop and the amount of exceptional artwork submitted for the student exhibitions.

Congratulations Miami Watercolor Society.

Painting, a stroke of genius,

Diane Lary, MWS President

NEWS FLASH! The Miami-Dade Department of Cultural Affairs, Developing Art in Neighborhoods Grants Program (DAN Grant) has awarded MWS a grant of $10,363. for 2016!!!!

Miami-Dade County Public Schools Proclamation honors MWS

The Miami-Dade Public School Board issued a proclamation thanking the Miami Watercolor Society, Wednesday, January 13, for three decades of volunteer service. MWS president, Diane Lary, Dottie Greene and Donna Underwood were on hand to receive the honor from School Board Member, Lubby Navarro.

Dottie Greene started the annual student watercolor show, "Impressions in Watercolor," 30 years ago. Donna Underwood joined her as co-chair 19 years ago. The student watercolor show and the annual all-day art teacher watercolor workshop held at Fairchild Tropical Garden are community outreach programs which involve members of the Miami Watercolor Society, the M-DCPS Visual and Performing Arts Office under the leadership of Mabel Morales, and charitable organizations such as the Dade Cultural Affairs Council.

Art Survey Results

At the January meeting, attendees completed a short survey. The responses with the most common frequency are noted here.

1. The brush I pick up the most is

- Size—Round # 8, 10, & 12
- Material/Brands—Cheap Joe's Legend Kolinsky Sable, Raphael, Escoda, Golden Taklon, Cheap Joe's Dream Catcher, Grumbacher brushes, W&N Sceptre Gold II.

2. My favorite primary pigments are

- Aurelian, new gamboge, rose madder, alizarin crimson, ultramarine blue, cobalt blue

3. In addition to the basics (paint, brushes, paper, water, towel/paper), I always have this item with me

- Spray bottle
- Pencil & eraser
- Scrubber
- Tape
- Blow dryer
- Sketch or photo reference

4. The most important tips I could give someone new to watercolor are

- Mental preparation – relax, have fun, be patient, persevere, play, be creative, experiment, know when to stop, don't be afraid to make mistakes (many can be fixed), and don't be so hard on yourself.
- Skill Building – take classes, watch instructional DVDs/youtube, practice-practice-practice, listen to critiques, learn to draw. Don't try to reproduce a photo. Learn the elements and principles of design/composition.
- Techniques – keep it simple, work from light to darks and work with large shapes, saving details for last. Make color charts, buy good quality paints and paper, and know the properties of pigment e.g., stainers, etc.

January 2016 MWS Meeting Notes

At the MWS January 2016 meeting, the new board of directors was officially installed. Leo Hernandez was the demo artist, showing his technique in botanical illustration. Leo joined Tropical Botanic Artists Collective after taking illustration classes at Fairchild. Using pencil and watercolor, his work springs to life with just enough detail to make vividly real and refreshing imagery. Thank you Leo!
