Juror Statement

This show displays wonderful paintings revealing beauty, harmony and peace; capturing the essences of scenes and the spirit of objects. The winning artists demonstrated creativity and skillful handling of media, perspective and composition. More importantly the best ones expressed unique personal styles. Judging the Miami Watercolor Society March show was a tough job for me: there were so many beautiful paintings I wanted to recognize. It was difficult to choose so few. Whether your painting is selected or not, painting should be fun-sharing love and beauty. In the process of creating, if you are happy and smile, you are a winner.
